

TORONTO: June 19 Update on City's Development Review, Permit and Inspection Services

Here is the latest update on the status of City of Toronto development review, permit and inspection services has been provided to BILD by Deputy City Manager, Tracey Cook. In this update, the City provides information on processes and milestones related to:

1. The Committee of Adjustment;
2. Concept to Keys;
3. Inspections for Occupied Homes;
4. Heritage Planning;
5. Suspension of Planning Act timelines to be lifted June 22; and
6. The resumption of Committee and Community Council meetings

Members can access the full update here. BILD will continue to keep members apprised as new information comes forward.